Ways to buy it:

Amazon

Barnes and Noble

Indie Bound

Kindle

Nook

And just in time for Women's History Month-- ("Know your history" is Power Tool #1) with a NEW discussion guide for book clubs.

On Leap Day women traditionally were given power they lacked on other days--to ask men to marry them! (Read who started it and what the next great leap for women will be in my ForbesWoman.com blog post today--got your red petticoats on, Ladies?)

I'm taking take a leap--to ask you to help spread the word about the power-full messages and Power Tools of No Excuses. Gloria Steinem says the book is "indispensable," Rosario Dawson was inspired by it, and many of you have said it
